NSS unit GDC Gool Paid visit to the Environmental Park at Ghora Gali

Gool Dec 22: As part of week-long special winter camp, volunteers of NSS unit GDC Gool in coordination with Department of Environmental Science went to the Environmental Park at heritage site Ghora Gali, Gool. In total 50 volunteers accompanied by NSS programme Officer Mr. Mohd Younus Saleem, Dr. Irfan Ahmed Sofi Lect. EVS, Dr. Mohd Aasif Lect. Sociology and Mr. Mushtaq Ahmed Lab Asstt. Visited in the Park. The observation of the volunteers and staff members did not remain satisfactory. The park was in shabby condition, it seems it has been unattended for a long time. There was nothing noteworthy in the park. The outdoor gym equipments installed in the park have been corroded. Dr. Irfan Ahmed Lect. EVS. addressed the Volunteers and apprised them about various ways to protect the environment. The enlightened lecturer emphasised that one should behave like a responsible citizen while utilizing the natural resources. He further added that like other natural resources the springs, lakes and other water bodies are being polluted day by day due to our negligence. Meanwhile, volunteers took pledge to save their surroundings from plastics and other harmful substances. They also promised to carry forward this message to those who are still endorsing such environment degraded practices. Light refreshment was also served to the volunteers
